

*2005 Sino-US Symposium on Science/Technology, Education/Talent
Exchange and Economic Development*

Hosted by

Association of Chinese Professionals - Atlanta

Speakers:

Tom Price, U.S. Congressman

Changgen Feng, leader of China Associations of Science & Technology

Kenneth Lee, Vice President of UPS

Lonnie Johnson, inventor of Super Soaker

Mayor of Suzhou City

Hua Tang, the leader of Chengdu's S&T Bureau

as well as experts from various fields in science, education and businesses

Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 8-9, 2005

Georgia Centers for Advanced Telecommunications Technology (GCATT)

250 14th Street, NW, Atlanta, GA 30318

Limited Seating, Please RSVP by October 2, 2005

$10 for collage students, including two lunches during the meeting days

Information: 706-247-4787

Registration Form

2005 Sino-US Symposium on Science/Technology, Education/Talent

Exchange and Economic Development

(For college students use only)

RSVP by Oct 2, 2005

Enclose check payable to ACP

$10 for college students

Send your Registration Form with the payment to:

2005 Sino-US Symposium, P.O. BOX 922436, Norcross, GA

30010-2436, USA

Name _____

University _____

address _____

city _____ state _____ Zip _____

Telephone _____ E-mail _____